Case Taking-The Landscape of Homeopathic Medicine (2nd Ed.)
Gray, Alastair C
- It identifies the qualities and skills required for the homeopath and encourages a regular self audit of them
- It uncovers the meaning behind the fundamental concepts in case taking. From the origins of Hahnemann and Boenninghausen, through Dunham and Kent, this book charts the evolution of homeopathy in the 20th century, looking at the work of Schott, Vithoulkas, Shett, Kaplan, Tankard and others. Furthermore it examines how homeopathy has borrowed from other disciplines to become the multi dimensional profession we know today
- It highlights the maturing of the profession by placing the person, the practitioner and the therapeutic relationship back in its rightful place, as important as the remedy in the homeopathic process
ISBN: 978-81-319-3299-6 | € 1450.00 | $ 25.00 | 34.00 | 488pp | PB

The narration of cases is presented with gestures and mimicry that for us ‘bring the healing science under his leadership and guidance.

Dr Milind Rao burned all his life to give us the light. Dr Mayuresh Mahajan the favorite to describe him is like describing the sun in the broad daylight. It is right to quote, ‘know-how’ of Case Records – Giving Practical ‘guru dakshina’ to his teacher, Dr Milind Rao, who always aimed to reach the masses, to spread the light of Homeopathy. Dr Mahajan has attempted to give voice to as a ‘guru dakshina’ to his teacher, Dr Milind Rao, who always aimed to reach the masses, to spread the light of Homeopathy.

This book has been penned down by a teacher and his student, unique in its genesis, ‘know-how’ of Case Records – Giving Practical
